

Marie-Anne BARBAT-LAYANI

Chief executive
FBF – FRENCH BANKING FEDERATION

► Education

- Alumna of ENA - National School of Administration
- Graduate from the Institut d'Etudes Politiques in Paris - Degree in Public Service – cum laude

Knight of the National Order of Merit

► Professional Experience

- Since May 2012 Inspecteur général des finances
(Senior auditor – General Auditing Service)
Ministry of the Economy, Finance, and Foreign trade
- 2010- 2012 Deputy chief of staff (second private secretary)
Prime minister's private office
Economy, finance, budget, taxation, industry
- 2007- 2010 Deputy CEO/General manager
Fédération Nationale du Crédit Agricole (national association of regional retail banks)
SAS Rue La Boétie (majority shareholder of Crédit Agricole SA – listed entity).
Head of the Financial, legal, tax and European affairs Division
- 2002- 2007 Deputy director – Banking and general interest financing Subdirector
French Treasury
Management of 3 divisions (Monetary and Banking Affairs – Financing of Housing and Public interest activities – Financing of Overseas territory)
Member of the boards of Caisse des Dépôts, Banque de France, Banks Supervisory Authority, European Banking Committee.
- 2000- 2002 Head of the Financial institutions Division
General Secretary of the National Committee for the Euro
French Treasury
- 2000 Technical advisor for European Affairs
Finance Minister's private office

FEDERATION
BANCAIRE
FRANCAISE

- 1997-1999 Financial Attaché
French Permanent Representation to the European Union (Brussels)
Competition and Financial Services
- 1995-1997 Deputy Head of the Energy, mining and telecoms Division
French Treasury
- 1993-1995 Deputy Secretary General of the Paris Club
French Treasury
Sovereign debt restructuring